What Exactly is Our Value Proposition?

Last month we told you that the ASEA is taking steps to reorganize and reposition our trade association in order to better serve the needs of the settlement industry in our state. As a first step in that process, a Value Proposition has been drawn up to better define and target what those needs might be... CLICK HERE to read more

BREAKING NEWS!!!

Dateline: Saturday, January 10, 2015
Scottsdale, AZ

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the ASEA Board of Directors was held at First American Title on Saturday, January 10th. After the establishment of a quorum and the clearing of housekeeping items, the main item for discussion was the proposed reorganization of the Board itself. Recommendations from an Ad Hoc Committee chaired by Bruce Beverly were unanimously accepted by those Board members present. CLICK HERE to read more

Testimony Time

I was asked to write a testimonial about how the Arizona State Escrow Association has helped me grow both personally and professionally. Upon receiving this request I have given a lot of thought about my involvement with ASEA over the years. While my level of commitment may have waxed and waned through the decades, the main benefit I've derived from the ASEA... CLICK HERE to read more

Procedural Changes for Recreation Centers of Sun City, Inc.

News was received last week from the Recreation Centers of Sun City, Inc. that they are implementing a new procedure for updating/transferring their ownership records. You will recall that in the past we had to deal with the cumbersome requirement of shuttling the two-page Facilities Agreement back and forth to... CLICK HERE to read more
