Wow!

My mother was right, time sure does fly by.

It seems like only yesterday I was attending my first ASEA conference. Enjoying the experience and wanting to get more involved, but being too shy to speak up. Now, that girl, who was a little too shy to stand up and declare her desire to be more involved, is President of this great organization. "Wow" may be an understatement.

Those of you that know me know that I am passionate about many things. In a way, this makes my life complicated (and very busy) because I want to follow all of my passions. In preparation for my new position, I sat down and thought about what it is that has driven me to passionately serve this great association. I would like to share a few phrases or slogans that resonate with me and what I am most passionate about when it comes to my involvement with ASEA.

There is no "I" in team.

Together Everyone Achieves More.

Teamwork makes the dream work.

YOU* may be strong, but WE are stronger.

Are you picking up on the theme?

Yes, it's teamwork! Working together is what I love most about being involved with ASEA. Meeting with my industry peers; all of us hailing from different companies, with different philosophies, and different company cultures, forgetting that outside of the walls of ASEA, we are all competitors. The magic of this organization is that we put that competition aside as we all come together to discuss and tackle issues going on in our industry, in support of our membership. One voice. United.

Coming together is the beginning; staying together is progress; working together is success.

I am thrilled to serve as the 2013-2014 President of the Arizona State Escrow Association. I have some pretty big shoes to fill thanks to all of our incredibly talented Past Presidents, but I commit to you that I will work very hard to make this next year fun and fulfilling for you, our membership.

I am proud to be a member of this industry, I am passionate about this organization and I am honored to be serving as your President.

Go Team ASEA!
