STANDING RULES OF THE ARIZONA STATE ESCCROW ASSOCIATION
PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

SECTION 10. PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

A. Application Process.

1. Any member of this Association who wishes to earn a Professional Designation must submit an application to the Professional Designations Committee (PDC) on a form provided by this Association, which must include, but may not be limited to the following:
 - a. The name, address and telephone numbers of the Applicant.
 - b. The name, address and telephone number of the Applicant's current employer.
 - c. A record of the Applicant's employment history documenting the required years experience for the designation being applied for, including the name, address and telephone number of the Applicant's current employer.
 - d. A consent form signed by the applicant authorizing current and former employers to release information to this Association. A separate form will be required for each employer shown on the application. All periods of employment will be verified by the PDC prior to the test date.
 - e. A record of all educational credits earned. The applicant must provide copies of any certificates or other documentation verifying the educational credits earned.
2. All applications must be submitted to the PDC at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled testing date.
3. All educational credits must be earned at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled testing date.
4. All applications must include an application fee as may be set from time-to-time by this Association. The application fee shall be non-refundable regardless of whether or not the Applicant passes the test.

B. Testing Process

Professional Designation tests shall be offered at least once per year, at a place and time as determined by the PDC.

1. The PDC shall cause a Notice of Professional Designation Testing to be sent to all members of this Association at least ninety (90) days prior to the test date, which notice shall include, but may not be limited to the date, time and place of the test and the names and phone numbers of each member of the Professional Designations Committee.
2. Each applicant shall complete a series of comprehensive written and oral examinations as developed by the Professional Designations Committee for the designation being applied for.
3. Each applicant shall achieve a minimum passing score on each portion of the test as follows:
Vocabulary, Questions and Answers as applicable:

| | |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| Certified Escrow Assistant | 58% |
| Certified Assistant Escrow Officer | 66% |
| Certified Escrow Officer | 79% |
| Certified Senior Escrow Officer | 86% |

Orals & Problems: All Applicable Designations Pass or Fail

4. Should the applicant fail all or any portion of the test, the applicant may retest under the original application and fee at any regularly scheduled test date within one (1) year from the original test date and shall notify the PDC in writing of his/her desire to retest at least fifteen (15) days prior to the scheduled test date. If the applicant has not passed all portions of the test for the designation originally applied for within one (1) year from the original test date, then the applicant must reapply in accordance with the application provisions set forth herein, and pay the applicable application fee.
 5. Each applicant shall complete the test for the designation applied for. No applicant may change designations during the course of the test.
 6. Should the applicant pass any portion of the test with a score that meets the minimum passing grade for a higher designation, then such score(s) may be applied to a higher designation for that applicant if and when the applicant submits an application and fee to test for a higher designation.
 - a) All passing scores shall be valid for a period of five (5) years from the original test date. If the applicant has not tested and met the minimum passing grades for a higher designation within five (5) years of the original test date, then the applicant must complete and pass all portions of the test for any higher designation if and when the applicant submits an application and fee to test for a higher designation.
 7. The PDC may recruit assistance from among the general membership of this Association in proctoring at any designation testing. No person may proctor at any designation testing unless that person holds a designation as Certified Senior Escrow Officer.
 8. All records regarding professional designation tests shall be maintained by the Professional Designation Committee, and shall be held in the strictest confidence.
- C. A Professional Designation may be renewed upon completion of the following:
1. Maintained continued membership in good standing.
 2. It shall be required the holder of any Professional Designation earn at least ten (10) educational credits over a two (2) year period beginning the fiscal year following the year earning the Professional Designation.
- D. Certified Escrow Instructor
1. The designation of Certified Escrow Instructor will have the following testing requirements. The applicant must attend a mandatory class as provided by the PDC immediately prior to testing. There will be no retest available. Should the applicant fail to achieve a passing score of 86%, the applicant will have to re-apply, submit the appropriate application fee and retake the class and test at the next regularly scheduled testing.
 2. The Certified Escrow Instructor must renew their Professional Designation every three (3) years. That renewal shall take place no later than the next available test date following the fourth calendar year of the applicant's successful passing of the test. In order to test, the applicant must submit a timely application as previously provided herein. The applicant will again take the mandatory class and pay the appropriate application fee.

SECTION 11. CONTROVERSIES REGARDING APPLICATIONS OR TESTS

- A. Any application subject to denial shall first be reviewed by all members of the PDC prior to notifying the applicant of the denial.
 1. Any controversy regarding any application or test shall first be referred to the President of this Association prior to notifying the applicant of the PDC's decision.
